Those Who Go, Come and Tarry.

MRS. BEYER ENTERTAINS THE FRIDAY EUCHE.

The Friday Euchre met with Mrs. C. D. Beyer in her pretty home on North Hayne, which was tastefully decorated with ferns. When the scores were counted it was found that Mrs. George White had the highest, which entitled her to the ace prizes which were, a green leather center-piece with a burnt leather border and an ebony and sterling darning ball.

Mrs. Walter White won the consolation, a rolling pin ornament of orange wood and a green leather picture frame, while Mrs. George Hoffman captured the booby, a "Buster Brown and a little Filipino."

The lone hand prize, a handsome blue and gold satin pin cushion also went to Mrs. George White.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Walter White.

MISS THIESEN'S AT HOME.

Miss Petec Thiesen has invitations out for an "at home" Monday evening from 8 to 11, when she will entertain her little friends. The decorations will be in white and yellow, those colors to be beautifully carried throughout the rooms and the refreshments. The guests will be entertained with a "Poster" party followed by various progressive games in which all will be interested.

ARMY AND NAVY NOTES.

The officers and ladies of Fort Barancas gave a dance in one of the new quartermaster's buildings on Tuesday evening. A large and enthusiastic party from Pensacola and the navy yard came down on a chartered and special dummy. The rooms were decorated with military colors and flags and the dining room in the basement was especially attractive. Excellent music was furnished by the Artillery band, and the programs were hand decorated with a unique military design. About eighty people attended the hop and it was considered by all to be one of the finest parties of the season.

Mrs. H. W. Hubbell, Mrs. B. W. Perry and Miss Perry, have gone to New Orleans to attend the Mardi Gras carnival.

Captain Hase, Lieutenant Coward and Lieutenant Andrus have gone on a hunting trip. Lieutenant Storck is acting adjutant during the absence of Lieutenant Coward.

Captain Stephens, in command of the Ninth Company Coast Artillery, who fell and sprained his ankle some time ago has been obliged to go into the hospital and have it put into a plaster cast. Lieutenant Hardin will assume command of the Ninth Company.

JUVENILE MISSIONARY MITE BOX OPENING.

The opening of their mite boxes by the members of the Juvenile Missionary Society in the Sunday school room of the Palafax M. E. church Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6, was succeeded by the following interesting program:

1. Mrs. L. E. Nobles gave an encouraging talk to the children.
2. Miss Emmie Kate and Miss Annie Bell McMillan, piano duet.
3. Miss Roberta Lawrence, recitation.
4. Mrs. D. B. Rutherford, piano solo.
5. Miss Vilma Maura, recitation.
6. Mrs. "Dick" McAllister, piano solo.

After the program light refreshments were served and the young people had a pleasant social time for nearly an hour.

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION FOR NEW MEMBERS AND VISITING PRESBYTERIANS.

The reception given Friday night in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church for the new members and for visitors in the city was a most enjoyable affair and as a promoter of social fellowship will undoubtedly prove of mutual benefit to all concerned.

The officers of the church and their wives formed a receiving party, extending a cordial greeting to each arrival, introducing strangers and home-folks to each other, and seconded by the members generally made all feel at home.

Forty-two new members have been received since the first of the year and many winter visitors are among the regular attendants at the services of this church of which Rev. Julian S. Sibley is the beloved and able pastor.

An orchestra furnished excellent music and dainty refreshments were served throughout the evening, potted plants and flowers adding their charm to a genuinely social and pleasant meeting.

Officers of the church are, Rev. J. S. Sibley pastor, Clerk of session Mr. W. B. Ferriss, Treasurer Mr. A. D. Morrison, Treasurer of missionary fund, Mr. C. V. Thompson, Superintendent Sunday school Mr. R. M. Bushnell, Superintendent Stoddard avenue Missionary Sunday school Mr. C. F. Zeek.

MR. BRAWNER'S MOTHER DEAD.

Mr. F. E. Brawner has the profound sympathy of the community in his sorrow for the death of his mother to whom he was so devotedly attached.

Mr. Brawner and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Fleming, life-long friend of his mother, arrived at her bedside in Alabama Thursday evening about 8 o'clock, but Mrs. Brawner was unconscious and passed away at 11 that night without recognizing them.

Mrs. Sara Louise Brawner's home was in Castlereary, Ala. While visiting her sons in Andalusia she was taken ill of grippe at the home of Mr. J. E. Brawner Friday, February 24, and passed away after six days' suffering. She was about 66 years old and leaves an aged and devoted husband 78 years old, and six sons, all married and with families.

On Saturday morning the funeral took place at 8:30 o'clock from the Baptist church in Castlereary, of which she was a pillar and a leader, as she was in all good work, and her body was laid to rest in the old Castlereary cemetery.

Mr. Brawner and Mrs. Fleming are expected home from their sad mission this evening.

MEYER-LAIRD.

On Thursday evening, February 23 at the bride's home in Woolsey, Mr. Fred C. Meyer and Miss Addie A. Laird were united in marriage, the Rev. Father Brady officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer left on the Friday morning train for Jacksonville and from there to their home in Brooklyn, N. Y.

MRS. JOHN B. JONES CHARMING HONOREES.

Mrs. John B. Jones gave a lovely afternoon euchre Friday for Miss Marguerite Sheppard of St. Andrews sister of Mrs. William R. Gonzalez, and Miss Marion Des Loge of St. Louis, guest of Mrs. C. W. Oliver.

Mrs. Joneses guests were two charming honorees Miss Sheppard and Miss Des Loge; Miss Patti Holden, Miss Belle Whiting, Miss Fannie Caldwell, Miss Irene Gonzalez, Miss Sallie Wright, Miss Mary Chaffin, Mrs. E. J. Wilson, Mrs. C. W. Oliver and Mrs. W. R. Gonzalez.

The first prize went to Miss Whiting, the consolation to Miss Chaffin and the booby to Miss Sheppard.

HINOTE-STEWART PRETTY WEDDING IN GALT.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday night at 8 o'clock in the Union church in Galt, Fla., when Miss Grace Anna Stewart and Mr. Philip Oscar Hinote were married, Rev. B. R. Anderson officiating.

The bride was lovely in white chiffon velvet and a filmy, flowing veil. Miss Zella Hanshaw was maid of honor gown in an extremely becoming delicate pink.

Miss Bertie Boswell and Miss Daisy Hubbard were two dainty little attendants in pale blue frocks and carrying shower bouquets of yellow daisies.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the beautiful home of the bride's father Mr. Allen W. Stewart prominent planter and stockman, which was prettily decorated with a wealth of ivy, smilax and flowers, with pink the prevailing color, and hot coffee, sandwiches, cake and cream punch were delightfully served.

Immense quantities of china, glassware and furniture eloquently evidenced the popularity of the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinote left Thursday to spend their honeymoon in Mobile, New Orleans and other southern cities.

Mrs. Will Watts and two children of Kentucky are visiting Mrs. W. T. Duncan. After Mardi Gras Mrs. Watts will visit relatives in Chipley then return for another little visit before going home.

Miss Jessie de Rocheblave, who has filled the position of stenographer for Messrs. Amos & West for several months past, having finished the work on hand, left Milton for her Pensacola home Tuesday. Miss Jessie, by her genial disposition and affable manners, gained many friends while here, and she will be greatly missed.—Milton Index.

The dance given by Naomi Rebekah Lodge Friday night was one of the most enjoyable events of the season. The large hall was crowded with merry dancers, all of whom thoroughly enjoyed themselves, and at the close the Rebekahs had added another to their already long list of successes.

Judge George Hallmark, accompanied by Mrs. Hallmark and their daughter Miss Daisy, has returned from Jacksonville, where the judge has been stationed for several years as secretary of the state board of
